CHITTARA: ART EVENTS - OVERVIEW

Hongirana Foundation believes that every child is an artist

Through the Chittara wing, community volunteers, corporate, school authorities, and children come together in art events

These events are conducted on the school premises and have become a playful way to inculcate important social values in children. They work in a collaborative, almost festive environment while learning values like hygiene, water conservation, etc.

At Ganigarapalya school regular art education is imparted to children by volunteers

Of Schools: 12
Of Corporate : 5
Of Volunteers : ~100
Of Partner NGOS: 6

VIDYA JYOTHI - EDUCATION SUPPORT UPDATES

Hongirana Foundation, through generous donations from the residents of the community have been able to help the support staff pay for their children's education. After a thorough check of the school, several conversations with the school administration, HF pays partial fees to the concerned school directly.

Through frequent follow ups with the parents, children, and sometimes the school authorities, HF keeps tab on the progress of the child year after year.
